YOUTH CELEBRATES 16TH BIRTHDAY BY KILLING ANOTHER

NEW YORK (P-Police charged a Bronx youth with celebrating his 16th birthday early today by murdering another youth with a hunting knife.

The 18-year-old victim was the fourth to die from teen-age vio-lence in the city within a week. Samuel Montgomery and two other youths, Robert May, 16, and Russell Corley, 16, were cele brating Montgomery's 16th birthday when words between the trio and the victim and Richard Vaughan, 18, led to a fistfight and then the stabbing, police said.

A juvenile gang fatally stabbed one youth earlier this week. The 26-year-old son of a policeman was kicked to death by teenage thugs last weekend. A 74-yearold man died of overexertion Wednesday night shortly after he fought off three hoodlums in Central Park.

A 16-year-old boy was in critical condition from a near-fatal stabbing Thursday night.

The king sized mansion of 1900 with its French peaked roof, dormer windows and lofty chimneys has given way to the streamlined versions of modern living like we find in the House of Tomorrow. There are 17 miles of paved roads within the estate which also comprises the Biltmore Dairy Farms with 1,200 thoroughbred Jerseys.

The spacious rooms are filled with furniture, objects of art, tapestries, and statues that date back to 1515. The library with a spiral staircase leading to a gallery contains 20,000 volumes. One of the most interesting rooms in the well preserved mansion is the Banquet Hall 72 feet long by 42 feet wide and with a 72 foot high ceiling. The room is equipped with a huge organ and decorated with flags of the original colonial states. The long table would seat about 65 or 70 people.

While the home is surrounded by 35 acres of lovely formal gardens its interiors are dark and depressing. Massive and the difficulty during these days of furniture and dust collecting tapestries bear down on you from all sides. Only one room is cheerful, a remarkably

JOHN MORLEY Recent Soviet Shake-up

MOSCOW, U.S.R.R. (Delayed) - In our recent column "The Cracks in the Kremlin," written before the Soviet shake-up ousting Molotov, Malenkov, Kaganovich we reported the split between these pro-Stalinists and the antists headed by Party Boss Nikita Khrushchev

Also in this column we repeated our long-standing conclusion that the Russian army and Marshal Georgi Zhukov will con-Tinue to increase their power and influence, no matter what. This is exactly what has happened and the end of this army ascendancy is not yet in sight

Marshal Zhukov is the Soviet Union's greatest military hero and commands the greatest applause whenever 1- appears with saw him cheered for a half hour in Red square the other day.

IT IS OUR OPINION that this Kremlin shake-up means a softer, more compromising attitude, but no startling changes of policy toward the United States. We be lieve the ousting of the pro-Stalinists is favorable to West. It is a change in Soviet tactics with greater concentration in internal affairs.

We see less rigidity toward the less pressure on the satellites. for Red China's Mao Tse-tung and Yugoslavia's Tito, whom I will see this week in Belgrade. Both of them have been urging a more "liberal" kind of Com-munism as opposed to the hard pro-Stalinist line.

munist policy had to give before enormous pressure from within and without the Soviet Union. In this showdown we had unquestionable confirmation of the power of Marshal Zhukov and the fact that without the support of the Russian army no political leader can exist.

It is apparent that Zhukov's support of anti-Stalinist Khrushchev, as we had repeatedly reported, stems from his hatred of the Stalinists who executed thousands of Russian army officers in the Stalin-Vishinsky purges of BOTH ZHUKOV AND Khrushchev have emerged slowly but methodically from the seclusion in which they had been kept by Stalin. They both despised Stalin's one-man rule. Both of them blamed Jewish influence in the central committee for Stalin's purging of prominent leaders.

They had blamed Kaganovich, Stalin's brother-in-law (the only Hebrew on the central commit tee), and Molotov, because of his Jewish wife Pauline's influence against army dominance.

The pro-Stalinists removed from office and party power in this purge opposed the decisions advanced by Khrushchev and the anti-Stalinists and adopted by the 20th congress. They opposed the downgrading of Stalin's per sonality cult. They wanted more Stalin monuments, not removing some in existence.

THEY OPPOSED the "Leninist policy of co-existence between states with different political systems." They opposed the anti-Stalinists' reduction of centralized bureaucratic controls and the reorganization of industry and agriculture on a localized level among the 16 Soviet Republics. Stalin has now been replaced by the "cult-of-personality" of Khrushchev, for he had been cultivating it to a far greater extent than any of his anti-Stalinist co-conspirators. He has ordered his portrait in every book and corner in Russia. Even on the Volga chev portraits and only two of

Now there are travelers so allergic to another cathedral or university that the very thought brings on an advance case of aching arches. But my advice to the tourist invited to inspect the University of Mexico is to run, not walk, to the fastest means of transportation to this extraordidinary institution on the outskirts of the city.

Paradoxically, this university, the oldest on the continent, boasts a new physical plant that is a stunning tour de force of modern architecture, fine art and educaion. Mexico's Jose College gets his higher education in a university like none other in the world—a sweeping panorama of lawns, glass, colonnades, splendid mo-saics and murals and color, color, Founded by royal charter more than 400 years ago, the university was housed in a conglomeration of buildings (the School of Medicine carried on in the old headquarters of the Holy Inquisition) until Mexico in 1950 began a new home for the university on an ancient lava bed. BETTY HUTTON'S domestictype telepilot is down the drain. Neither Betty nor NBC-TV was happy with it . . . Says Betty: 'I've decided I don't like the happy with it idea of a domestic series. It's boring" . . . So Betty is now angling to do a live series in the field she knows best: sing-danceplenty-hot.

Reason Chevy drew the line on Dinah Shore appearing on Frank TV: It would have been beamed two days before her own show starts and the auto people want Dinah to reserve her Sunday punch for them — this despite the fact that Frankie would have reciprocated by appearing on Dinah's show.

Promised and hoped for: Ernie Kovacs as a regular on "What's My Line?" . . . Barbara Nichols told me she'll be playing a mother on Kraft Theatre Aug. 7. I asked, "The mother of what?" Barbara: "Sextuplets - what

MOVIE STUDIOS are releasing more and more of their big movies during the summe months because they've discovered TViewing is 'way off then and the drive-in theatre business is BIG . . . John Drew Barry-more go through his baptism of blood as a director on Matinee Theatre and groaned, "I'll never complain about being directed again. Now I know what goes on behind the cameras!"

Dan Dailey re his circus ring-master bit on an Ed Sullivan show: "I'll do anyghing they want me to do except imitate Sullivan - everybody does that' Imogene Coca and Vincent Price joined the guester lineup for Jane Wyman's new series Jane will feature more suspense and adventure this time around and, even though she'll be slotted in the Thursday night spot or posite Playhouse 90, she doesn't seem worried.

"It doesn't mean a thing. After all, who would have guessed that a quiz show would knock 'I Love Lucy' off the beam?"

As one Wyman spokesman savs

Jimmy Dunn's definition of marriage: When a girl is whistl-
